

INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE
„ECONOMY AND SOCIETY DUE TO THE CHALLENGES OF XXI CENTURY ”

Faculty of Economics and Management, University of Białystok (Poland) would like to invite you to participate in the International Week of Science and Education „Being international – 2019”, which will be held from 13th to 17th of May, 2019.

Within a week, an International Scientific Conference „Economy and society due to the challenges of the XXI century” is planned, and in the following days lectures for students will take place. Academics are welcome to propose topics that are related to Economics, Management, Finance or other connected with social challenges of XXI century.

The aim of the project is to intensify international cooperation in the field of research and teaching within economics, management, as well as in socio-political dimensions.

Participation in the International Week of Science and Education is free of charge. The Faculty provides refreshments during the conference, including participation in a gala dinner, publication of the paper and (to be confirmed) participation in the trip around Białystok. However, participants should cover the cost of trip and accommodation. Where applicable, the funding might be available from the Erasmus grant distributed by the home institution. Faculty of Economics and Management will recommend a well-located accommodation and will try to arrange a lower price for it, once we get an illustrative number of participants.

Deadline for application in International Week of Science and Education is 31st of January 2019. To register, please visit: <http://beinginternational.uwb.edu.pl/>

An application form (only in electronic version) will be available since November 2019.

In case of any questions, please do not hesitate to ask coordinators via email: beinginternational@uwb.edu.pl
